

On November 22nd, the students in Sonya Arias-Cruz and Belia Castaneda's Kindergarten classes held their very own Turkey Day Parade. The students paraded around the gym and were applauded by students, staff, parents and grandparents. The students showed their creativity and personality in the design of their floats. Each float was adorned with a potato dressed as a turkey and the floats and their turkeys ranged from patriotic to racecar drivers and princesses.